1 Kings 13:1-34

1. In what ways has Jeroboam flouted God's word?
2. In lying the old prophet becomes a 'false prophet'. What are the marks of a false prophet?
3. How wide-spread is the work of "false prophets" in the church at large today?
4. In our own efforts to be "nice" can we down play what the word of God says and in so doing act as "false prophets"?
Illustrations.
5. How can we avoid being taken in by a false prophet?
6. The king who is the real villain is still on the throne at the end of this story while the man of God is dead. What are we to make of this?
7. Verse 33 is the key verse of the passage "even after all this". What would it take to convict a man like Jeroboam?
